

Alps for all

I hope people will not let beautiful horses and skilled riders deceive them into mistaking self-interest of cattlemen for public interest. Our alps should not be for the few but for all Victorians to enjoy.

BEVERLEY BROADBENT,
13 Raleigh Street,
Windsor.

Heritage at risk

The mountain cattlemen are coming in all their glory to Nunawading Province territory, they claim to preserve our heritage. That is not what the botanists and soil conservationists say.

JEAN RICHARDS,
Scenic Crescent,
Kalorama.