

All smiles at Mansfield sale

It was a real "after-the-rain-affair" at the Mansfield special cattle sale last Friday.

Prices were $30 to $40 higher than the last sale in early May, with the top price line of heifers making $366.

The pen of 23 heavy bullocks pictured above sold in three lines at an average of $353. They were offered by C.J. and L.H. Armstrong.

The Lovick family brought in 260 Hereford cattle from their farm at Merrijig.
