

Picturesque Shannon Vale was the venue for the Mountain District Cattlemen's Association's annual get-together last week-end, during which strong opposition was voiced at exclusion of summer grazing from the nearby Bogong High Plains.