Up on the high plains it's time for the roundup

Picture: JOHN SEART

It's muster time on the high plains of Victoria's alpine region and rounding up 200 herefords roaming 40,000 hectares is a family affair for the Lovicks. Before a backdrop of Mt. Buller, Glenda Lovick on her horse Cheeky and Sen Weir on Bio bring along a few stragglers. They are among 30 family members and helpers involved in the muster. Highland people gather to muster — 2.
