

CATTLEMAN COMPETITION

This week 'Post' in association with Mountain Cattleman, Jack Lovick, is holding an exciting competition for young people aged between 10 and 16 years, to celebrate the cattlemen's visit to the outer eastern suburbs.

The first prize is a five day holiday camp with Lovick's Mountain Safaris from September 4 until September 8. The winner will have the holiday of his or her life learning bushcraft and bush riding skills.

Jack's safari horses featured in the movie of 'The Man From Snowy River' and include 'Denny,' the hardy mountain pony ridden by Tom Burlinson in the film.

All you need to do to be in the running to win the prize is write an essay saying why you believe the mountain men should be allowed to remain in the high country. Write down all the reasons you can think of and send the essay to us at 24B John St, Lilydale 3140. Write 'Mountain Man Competition' on your envelope.

Entries close on Wednesday, August 20. Runners up will receive copies of the L.P. record 'Pioneers' by Wallis and Matilda.
