IT'S OFFICIAL

Rosemary Varty is now the official Member of the Legislative Council for Nunawading.

At the Declaration of the Poll at Mitcham Electoral Office last Friday, the Returning Officer, Mr K. Findlay, declared Mrs Varty the winner.

On the final count Mrs Varty received 52,086 votes to 40,818 for Labor Candidate, Bob Ives.

After being invited to speak by Mr Findley, Mrs Varty thanked the voters of the province and said the result was a clear indication of people's concern about both the state and federal Labor Governments.

She said the result should be a lesson to the Australian Democrats who would need to have a long think about their future direction.

Mrs Varty said she would shortly be opening an office in Ringwood and would be available to all her constituents.

Other results on the final count were:

Watson	3120
Nardella	4947
Cotterell	2649
